Vishwa Ayurved Parishad:-

Vishwa Ayurved Parishad was established in the year 1997, to reinstate the glory of Ayurved in the present era and to facilitate the acceptance and recognition for Ayurveda all across the country and the globe. VAP is in a relentless effort to provide a credible platform to the scholars & followers of Ayurveda, in order to enhance the potential and authenticity of the science to wider audiences globally. Covid Pandemic times have rightfully highlighted the importance of Ayurveda for health management and disease prevention. Presently Vishwa Ayurved Parishad is the largest international organization of India which is working for betterment of mankind through Ayurveda.

Maharishi Agnivesha was a legendary Ayurved physician, philosopher, researcher and one of the earliest authors of Ayurveda. He is said to have organized the knowledge of his Guru, Maharishi Atreya, into a treatise called the Agnivesh Tantra. It is supposed that the Agnivesh Tantra is the first written scripture where all the basic fundamentals/ principles of the Ayurved science was compiled systematically in the period of 1000 BC.

Acharya Charak is a well known Rishi and principal contributor in the field of Ayurved science. His time period is about 200 B.C. He edited the Agnivesh Tantra of 1000 B.C. and wrote Charak Samhita, which is the fundamental treatise of Ayurvedic medicines. As per his concept and theory, he is supposed to be the Father of Medicine.

Acharya Dridhabala lived around 400 AD. He is believed to have revised and completed the Charaka Samhita, an ancient Ayurvedic text. Dridhabala's revision added 41 chapters to the text and is the source of the current texts.
